PAPER COMMENT NATION SOLIDLY BEHIND THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, MAY 14.—THE PREVAILING OPINION IN WASHINGTON CIRCLES TODAY IS THAT GERMANY WILL NOT YIELD TO DEMANDS OF THE UNITED STATES, BUT WILL ATTEMPT TO WIN SUBMARINE WARFARE AND ASSERT HER RIGHT TO THE PLANS Laid OUT TO DESTROY THE COMMERCE OF OTHER NATIONS CARRYING WAR MUNITIONS TO GERMANY'S ENEMIES.

TO COME TO THE WORST, IT IS BELIEVED THAT PRESIDENT WILSON WILL SEVER DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH GERMANY, AND THE SEIZURE OF GERMAN VESSELS NOW INTERNED IN STATES PORTS, AND DESIGNATE TORPEDO DESTROYERS TO MERCHANT VESSELS TO EUROPEAN PORTS WHERE THEY BE ATTACKED BY SUBMARINES.

FURTHER COURSE OF THE AMERICAN NATION PROBABLY GOVERNED BY GERMANY'S ACTION.

NEW YORK, MAY 14.—CALMNESS AND BELIEF IN THE CONFIDENCE BY THE PUBLIC IN THE PRESIDENT MARKED THE COMMENT ON THE AMERICAN NOTE TO GERMANY BY THE LEADING NEWSPAPERS OF THE COUNTRY, TODAY. ALL THAT FUTURE ACTION, MOMENTOUS AS IT MAY BE, NOW DEPENDS ON GERMANY.

NEW YORK, MAY 14.—TRADING IN STOCKS IS DULL, AND THERE IS A SLIGHTLY UNSETTLED FEELING. PRICE CHANGES HAVE BEEN LIMITED.

WASHINGTON, MAY 14.—THE AMERICAN NOTE PROTESTING AGAINST SUBMARINE WARFARE AND THE KILLING OF AMERICAN PRISONERS PRESENTED TO THE FOREIGN OFFICE THIS MORNING BY AMERICAN MINISTER GERARD.

WASHINGTON, MAY 14.—A CABINET MEETING TODAY WAS DEVOTED TO THE ANALYSIS OF THE PUBLIC'S RECEPTION OF PRESIDENT WILSON'S NOTE TO GERMANY. MANY TELEGRAMS WERE RECEIVED ENDORSING THE NOTE AND PROMISING SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT IN WHATEVER ACTION HE MAY TAKE. DIFFERENCES HAVE EXISTED IN THE CABINET OVER THE GERMAN PROBLEM SINCE THE NOTE WAS PRESENTED, AND THE PRESIDENT IS NOW SECURING THE FULL SUPPORT OF EVERY MEMBER.

GERMAN AND BRITISH EMBASSIES REFUSE TO DISCUSS THE NOTE.

TRACK AND FIELD MEET BIG SUCCESS

SEVERAL HUNDRED PEOPLE GATHERED ON OCEAN BEACH THURSDAY AFTERNOON TO WITNESS D. H. S. MEET.

The first annual track and field meet of Daytona high school, held in the vicinity of the ocean pier, Thursday afternoon was as great a success as its most optimistic promoters had hoped it to be. It was an almost perfect day for the contests, the rain and gloom of the morning giving way to the bright rays of the sun a trifle before the time scheduled to start the games, and by 2:30 between 300 and 400 spectators had gathered to witness the sports.

It was a great day for individual performances, Branch and Newman gathering in the bulk of the prizes in the class A events, while Carlisle Moore was the star of the class B group. Branch pulled down the biggest individual score, capturing the standing broad and running high jumps, high kick, 220-yard run and mile run, while he placed in the 70 and 100-yard dashes and running broad jump a total of five firsts and three seconds.

"Speeder" Newman was strong in the dashes and also took the running broad jump with a 16-foot, 9-inch leap. His victories were supplemented with a second division of the spoils in the standing broad, high kick and running high jump. In the class B events, Moore won the 70-yard, 100-yard and 220-yard dashes, standing broad jump, tied for first in the high jump, and was second in the running broad jump, which was going some.

All the events were run off in rapid time and afforded the good-natured beach crowd a great deal of amusement. The feature contests were the high kick, in which Newman gave Branch a long struggle, as did Rightmire, the long boy finally winning with an 8-foot, 1-inch boot; the running high jump which Branch also won after a long struggle with Newman, when he managed a 5-foot leap, and the mile run. In the latter event Branch, Doty and McDonald ran an even race to the three-quarter mark, where Mac dropped out. Scarcely a stride separated the remaining pair until the final 100 yards, when Branch opened the throttle wide and won by four yards.

In the girls' 70-yard dash, Miss Margaret Oliver won easily from a large field, at no time being pressed by the other contestants. Miss Ivy Melton took second place, and Miss Vergie Beville, third.

The list of events, together with the prize winners, follows:

Class A, 70-yard dash—Newman, first; Branch, second. Class B—Moore, first; Pope, second.
Class A, 100-yard dash—Newman, first; Branch, second. Class B—Moore, first; Pope, second.
Class A, standing broad jump—Branch, first; Newman, second. Class B—Moore, first; Pope, second.
Class A, running broad jump—Newman, first; Branch, second. Class B—Baker, first; Moore, second.

FIRST SUMMER MEETING OF THE TWILL DO LADIES

The party of ladies who annually rent the Twill Do cottage on the ocean beach at Daytona Beach for the summer months and regularly spend Wednesday of each week there, held their first meeting for the summer, Thursday of this week, a postponement from Wednesday because of the inclement weather prevailing that day. The usual ten or a dozen ladies were present and enjoyed a very pleasant time together.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gardiner and son, George, were in the city for a few days this week, accompanied by friends from Lake Alford, making the trip to Daytona and return in their car, and staying while here at the Seville hotel. Mr. Gardiner owns a fine residence property on South Ridgewood avenue.

Clements 87, William Fagan 37, John Milligan 37, Hubert Price 102. Price and Clements being elected; for collector, F. A. Carnell received 95 votes; town clerk, P. F. Seabloom 36, D. W. Waldron 78; for town assessor, D. W. Waldron 66, P. F. Seabloom 38. L. C. Pinkerton was elected town treasurer with 97 votes. In all 152 votes were cast and 14 thrown out.

Howard Frech, who has been spending the winter with his parents in Ormond, returned to Brooklyn on Saturday last.

Mrs. and Mrs. James P. Vining chartered Ernest Mills' yacht "Home Run" from Daytona last week, making a trip down the river with Rockledge as their objective point. Mr. and Mrs. Vining had with them as guests Mrs. J. D. Price, two friends who had been spending the winter with them at Bretton Inn, and Frow Russell. They will return the first of the week.

Mrs. James Knowlton and daughter, Harriet, together with S. H. Wardwell, all left for their homes in Swampscott, Mass., on Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bennett, who have been spending several months in Ormond with Mrs. Udra Watson, returned to their home at Rossville, Ill., on Monday of this week. Mr. Bennett's health is still in rather a critical condition, but it is hoped that he will improve as he gets into the invigorating air of the north.

Mrs. Tupper, of Thorsby, Ala., mother of the Reverend and Mrs. E. W. Butler, with her sister-in-law, Miss Tupper, are in Ormond, guests of Mrs. Udra Watson and Miss Ella Foulke. Mrs. Tupper has many friends in Ormond who are glad to see her here again.

Everett Poston, one of the salesmen with J. P. Stanton, is taking a month's vacation, which he is spending with his parents at Daytona Beach.

Mothers' Day was appropriately observed at the Union church and those present listened to a most excellent sermon by Dr. Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Abbott, Miss Jane Abbott and Mrs. E. A. Fleming, who have been occupying one of the Barker cottages on Palmetto street the past season, left for their home near Buffalo, N. Y., on Thursday. The Abbotts, who have spent several winters in Ormond will probably be here again next season.

The Ormond Junior high school girls gave a bright little play entitled "Miss Fearless and Company," at the library rooms on Friday evening. The cast of characters was as follows:

Miss Margaret Menley, an heiress, Dorothy Daub; Miss Euphemia Addison, her chaperone, Edith Adams; Miss Sarah Jane Lovejoy, wholesome country woman, Jane Moore Adams; Katie O'Connor, Miss Henley's servant, Gladys Dressner; Misses Barbara Livingston, Bettie Cameron and Marion Reynolds, Miss Henley's guests, Minna Meiritz, Pearl Adams and Edith Stanton; "Just Lizzie," the ghost, Amelia Schmidt; Miss Alias, Miss Alibi, "Silent Sisters," supposed to be Jack Eggleston and James Reading.

Although most of the characters were rather young for their parts, they did excellent work, and their presentation of the play as a whole, was remarkably good, reflecting a great deal of credit not only upon the young people but upon those having their training in charge.

Edna Carnell, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carnell, who has been in the hospital of Dr. Klock for the past few days, is much improved and will be brought home on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week.

CURTIS ATKINS, COL., "DIVINER," PREACHER AND HEALER OF ILLS

A brief notice in Thursday's Daily News stated that a negro named Curtis Atkins, colored, had been remanded by Justice M. G. Rowe to the criminal court of Volusia county for trial on the charge of having obtained money in a manner not regarded by the state of Florida as lawful or in keeping with the ethical methods of acquiring wealth.

That is not all of the story—not by half a column or so.

If all or even a considerable part of the allegations against Curtis Atkins are true, he is entitled to a conspicuous place in the ranks of the country's frenzied financiers. Not only that, but Curtis has apparently earned recognition as the elaborator, if not the originator, of a system of money-getting that should commend itself to the thoughtful consideration of all ambitious persons burling with the "get-rich-quick" fever.

Curtis acquired the habit of waking up early in the morning with his eyes wide open for opportunities. If there were no detached opportunities lying around in plain sight, Curtis dived down in the convolutions of his think-tank and presently came up smiling with an opportunity that made the common garden variety look like unto scrub palmetto in a cypress swamp.

One of the witnesses at the trial before Justice Rowe testified that one of Curtis's methods of extracting the root of evil from his fellow colored citizens was through the introduction of an instrument that partook of the properties of a "divining rod." This "divining" thing always made a wonderful impression when Curtis went through the solemn ceremony of removing its inner wrapping of silk and its outer covering of sheepskin tanned and made into the likeness of a Master Mason's apron. With this instrument Curtis could locate gold and silver treasure; likewise he could trace to its secret hiding place the source of trouble and other things given to disturbing the equanimity of human beings. All the beneficiary had to do was to separate himself or herself from a cash fee of a size commensurate with the magnitude of the service to be rendered. The machine possessed superhuman intelligence; it knew its business; one of the prerequisites to its divination activities was the payment of the stipulated fee. But Curtis invariably made the mistake, so his professed victims allege, of failing to "divine" anything except fresh crops of "suckers." It is true his machine, the business end of which hung at the end of a very sensitive spiral spring, would answer "yes" to questions by bobbing up and down, or "no" by remaining still; but this conversational power, unbuttressed as it was by anything more valuable, did not seem to satisfy anybody save Curtis. Whence part of his trouble with the courts.

Curtis Atkins also posed as an expounder of the Gospel and a healer of ills—physical, mental and spiritual. He preferred to treat the ailments of females—always, of course, members of his own race. One of his favorite prescriptions for all morbid conditions of the human body ran something like this: Anoint the feet, the hands, the face and the hair three times daily with olive oil until further instructed; in addition to this, read the 91st psalm of David, between sundown and dark, each day for seven successive days. These treatments were not given without pay, and it is not recorded that any of Curtis' patients showed marked permanent improvement. Some days they felt better and some days they felt "wuss."

Atkins operated in the negro sections of the city for several months, and Chief of Police Milton was on his trail for some time before evidence on which to base an accusation was secured. The prisoner's alleged offense is punishable by a term in the penitentiary not longer than ten years.

PLAIN STATEMENT FROM MR. GILMAIN

Will you allow me, through the valued columns of your paper, a little space to explain to the public in general the reasons for my forthcoming entertainment tonight? First let me state that I have had absolutely nothing to do with the report circulated that this entertainment was connected in any way with the local order of Elks. I am putting on this performance by the request of some of the members of my recent company, who appreciated my efforts to coach them in the parts they played so successfully. All, with one accord, voiced another show, as it was both pleasing and instructive. They were so keen for it that they offered financial backing, but thanks to a discriminating public who evidently knew a good thing when they saw it they were ready and willing to give their patronage.

A stock company was formed among the players, promising to sell enough tickets to cover one-half the expense and I was to shoulder the other. Some were anxious for one local charity and others for another, so I am doing now as I have done in many of the large cities in the north, let each one choose their own charity and keep that a secret. I never question what any order that I am playing under the auspices of is to do with its money; I don't this time. I have shouldered one-half of the expenses personally and earned the money by giving entertainments at different hotels and sold tickets there to cover my share of the expense.

I did not go to any order, not even the Elks, of which I am a member, to buy tickets. I am deeply grateful, and I voice the sentiment of my entire cast also, for the use of the Elks' room for rehearsals for a week, and glad, too, of course, for their patronage if they feel so inclined. I am giving the people their money's worth in the entertainment that I have provided for them tonight, and anyone feeling they did not get their money's worth may come to me and I will refund the money, and I have so ordered my manager to comply with requests. From the looks of the board it seems I shall be greeted by a full house. Thanks, again, to the public and to the cast who have supported me and stood by me to the finish. Tonight I bid farewell to Daytona public and I take many pleasant memories with me, and trust I may return next season and find a cordial greeting.

ACCOUNTING SYSTEM FOR FRUIT SHIPPERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—

Copies of the accounting forms necessary in a new system of accounting for co-operative fruit associations can now be obtained from the U. S. department of agriculture. This system has been worked out by the department to meet the needs of the smaller organizations which handle fruit and produce, on a commission basis. There are several hundred of such co-operative organizations in the United States at present and new ones are continually being formed. Many of these, however, are short lived, and their failure can be traced in many cases to a faulty system of accounting. In the new system described by the department of agriculture in bulletin, No. 225, "A System of Accounting for Co-operative Fruit Associations," an envelope system is substituted for the sale book as being more flexible. In these envelopes all records and papers are held from the time the fruit is received until payment is made by the person to whom a carload of fruit is shipped. There is thus one envelope for each carload shipment. After the car has been paid for, the difference between the amount received and the various charges connected with the shipment constitutes the balance due to the grower.

Those who desire further information on this subject are requested to apply to the department, which, through its office of markets, is endeavoring to assist in every possible way co-operative associations in solving their various accounting problems.

SEEKS TO REGAIN HER CHILD

Arden, Cal.—Olga Eills, who claims to have the largest black walnut in the world, is coming up to the state university at Berkeley, Cal., to grow on F. W. Schuch's place of Arbuckle. Some time ago an account in the Union first brought this monster tree before the reading public, and it received much attention throughout the state. The agricultural department of the state university wrote Schuch about it, stating that information sent by him would be used in a book that the department is compiling.

In answer to the request of the university authorities Mr. Schuch has taken accurate measurements of the tree and submits the following to the Union correspondent: Circumference one foot from the ground, 23 feet 8 inches (below this the roots appear above the surface of the ground, making the tree about 26 feet); circumference nine feet from the ground, 19 feet 9 inches; height, 102 feet; width of shadow at noon, 120 feet.

The big tree is forty-six years old, having been planted in 1868 by D. Arnold, a Colusa county pioneer.

Olga Eills, the seven-year-old daughter of John Eills, formerly pastor of the Unitarian church at Chicopee, Mass., whose mother has been unsuccessful in her attempts to take the child from her father's possession. Eills is now professor of English at a commercial college in Tokyo, Japan, whither the mother has followed in quest of Olga. The marital troubles of the Eills developed in 1912 when the wife secured a divorce and was awarded the custody of the child. Later the father kidnapped Olga and the mother's efforts to regain possession of her have so far been fruitless.

PHONE CALL SAVES $50,000

New York Hotel Guest Closes Important Transaction by Across-Continent Talk.

New York.—H. Douglas Brown, assistant manager of the Vanderbilt hotel, observed E. S. Edmonson of Philadelphia impatiently pacing the corridor of the hotel. Seeing that he was observed Mr. Edmonson gave this excuse for being bothered:

"It's 23 minutes to 12, and soon every minute will be costing me something like $2,000 if I don't get a telegram from San Francisco."

He explained that an urgent business matter affecting his associate in the West was at stake in the shape of an option.

"I suggest that you use the telephone and call up San Francisco, and we will see that your call goes through with all possible haste," said Mr. Brown.

In a few minutes Mr. Edmonson was told that his business associate was ready to talk to him, and three minutes later Mr. Edmonson was able to leave to close the contract and take advantage of an option, which is said to have saved his firm $50,000.

WHILE the transient population of Daytona and the peninsula cities has dwindled to a few score souls, there are still several thousand permanent residents here. And they have to buy food and clothing and shoes and summer comforts and amusements.

THE EUROPEAN WAR

THE ALLIES VIEW.
By Albert W. Bryce.

Great Britain is engaged in a war which requires millions of soldiers. These millions of soldiers are not forthcoming as the result of voluntary enlistment. The country cannot yield, and the enforced demand must be made.

In short, Great Britain is now going through exactly the same experience which the American Union went through in 1863 and 1864. At first, a great wave of patriotic emotion passed over the country, which swept into the army the noblest, the bravest, the most self-sacrificing. But these did not suffice. Below these patriotic men of all ages there lies in Britain, as there lay in America, a vast lethargic stratum which is not to be moved out of its inertia by a patriotic appeal. These immovable ones are the sons of the mothers who sing, "I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier." But the nation cannot die in order that these men may be left in the bliss of their lethargy. They must be forced to the national standard.

THE GERMAN VIEW.
By Hugo von Kleist.

Recently in one of the large study rooms in Welsh Tower at Yale university, the third annual convention of the Intercollegiate league of German clubs took place, presided over by Monroe Curtis, of Cleveland, president of the league. He afterwards offered his resignation, as he has ceased to be an active student. John A. Allen, a senior of Yale university, was elected as his successor.

Delegates from more than a score of colleges and universities, including Columbia, Harvard, Yale, Brown, Wesleyan, Williams, Temple, Vassar and Vermont were present at the convention.

Resolutions were adopted expressing the admiration of the members of the league for "the bravery and steadfastness of their fellow students in Germany" in supporting their country's cause; the hope that the cordial relations existing between students in this country and Germany would continue; and declaring that "Americans, whatever their sympathies in the present war, should in no wise share the animosities generated by it."

The Word "British."

"The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland" has, since January 1, 1801, been the official title of the political unity composed of England, Scotland and Ireland. In this sense the word "British" applies to Ireland, but in no other. Politically the "British Isles" include England, Scotland and Ireland.

Came Together.

George and Robert are twins. One day when they were about eight a little playmate neighbor boy of about the same age came running up to where they were playing in the yard with this startling exclamation: "Oh, say, I got a little brother at my house; he came last night." "Huh, that's nothing," said George. "I brought my brother with me when I came."

Old Valencian Industry.

The making of glazed tiles or "azulejos" is the only ancient Valencian industry which has retained its importance through the centuries up to the present day. These wall and floor tiles enter into the construction of nearly every modern building throughout the region, and the local consumption alone is sufficient to keep the factories running.

HELP YOUNG PEOPLE CHOOSE THEIR WORK

BALTIMORE, Md., May 14.—Public employment offices should give practical suggestion and direction to young persons ready to enter industry. Charles E. Barnes, director of the New York Public Employment Bureau, told the delegates to the National Conference of Charities and Correction here today. He said:

"Many thousands of dollars are spent in educating the children of the different communities. After receiving this education, they are turned out of the schools at any time from the 14th to the 20th year, and allowed to hunt their vocation in life with very little well-defined or intelligent direction.

"The child may turn to its parent, who has very limited knowledge as to the industries of his community or the country at large. If the child turns to its teacher, it finds but little more help here, and so in a haphazard fashion it secures a 'job'."

"There should be in every community a central point to which the child should turn to learn all about industries; all about opportunities in staple trades and new lines of business; to know which were best fitted to its education and temperament. To thus save the child from misdirection would cut off one source of supply to the great stream of casual workers and unemployables.

"Public employment offices should also be able, in connection with trade unions, to give accurate information to vocational and trade schools as to what should be taught in them to meeting the coming needs of the various industries.

"Another way in which the public employment offices could help to lessen the number of casuals and unemployables would be to help to shift workers in seasonal industries from one work to another. Many trades and industries can be, or are, carried on for part of the year only, and when the workers leave one trade they have no central point where information can be had concerning some other trade in which they could be employed for the rest of the year. Lacking this, they drift about and soon become members of the great body of underemployed."

To Reduce Weight.

If you are too stout don't take fat reducing medicines. Cut down on your diet, get out-of-door exercise and you will assume normal line and reduce to normal weight. Avoid sweets, eggs, cream, fat meats and especially potatoes. Live mainly on lettuce, spinach, cabbage, lean meats, young onions, celery, tomatoes, etc. Take salted toast instead of bread and butter. If you cease to give your body fat-making foods you will cease creating fat cells. It is no trick to reduce if you practice self-denial.

Suspicious.

When a man starts off by announcing that he views something more in sorrow than in anger we always suspect that he is really pretty mad about it.

To Clean Watch Chains.

Gold or silver watch chains can be cleaned with a very excellent result, no matter whether they be mat or polished, by laying them for a few seconds in pure aqua ammonia. They should then be rinsed in alcohol, and finally shaken in clean sawdust, free from sand. Imitation gold and plated chains should be cleaned in benzine, then rinsed in alcohol, and afterward shaken in dry sawdust.

CARE OF DRUNKARDS CHARITY---DR. NEFF

BALTIMORE, Md., May 14.—The inebriate is a distinctive individual. Dr. Irwin H. Neff, superintendent of the Norfolk (Mass.) state hospital, told the delegates to the National Conference of Charities and Correction here today.

By assuming the treatment and care of drunkards, he continued, the state "is providing a charity, as clearly a duty to the community as caring for the insane, epileptic and feeble-minded." Prevention and care of drunkenness can only come by education, he concluded.

Helen T. Moolley, director of the bureau of vocational guidance of Cincinnati, Ohio, said that Ohio records show boys graduating from public schools earn much more in the first two years of their business life than graduates of parochial schools. Girls earn about the same, with a slight difference in favor of the parochial group.

She thought the manual training and gymnastic work of the public schools was responsible for the difference in the boys' work. She said supervisors of shop work confirmed the industrial superiority of the public school boys.

RECEIVES MESSAGE STATING HIS BROTHER IS IMPROVING

E. S. Hall received a telegram from West Palm Beach, Wednesday of this week, stating that his brother, James Hall, was improving steadily. Mr. Hall has been suffering from an attack of peritonitis and his life was recently despaired of, but he now has a good chance for recovery. He has many friends in Daytona who will be glad to know that he is getting along so well.

"I really dislike to talk to her; she has such a habit of finishing one's sentences for one. You know the kind?" "Yes; they listen faster than you can talk to them."

Bad Physical Sign.

The sudden cessation of pain is often as bad a sign as its beginning. In appendicitis or some other acute inflammation of the right side of the abdomen sudden cessation of pain may be of the gravest import, particularly if not associated with a corresponding drop in the temperature or pulse rate. Under such circumstances it is an unfailing index of gangrene or rupture of the appendix or of a breaking down of the barriers between an abscess and the general peritoneal cavity.

Hydrophobia Almost Abolished.

Pasteur's discovery of the treatment for hydrophobia was due to experiments on animals. Before this the death rate was from 6 to 14 per cent in different parts of the world. It is now less than one per cent.

Never Neglect a Cold.

Every cold, especially in a young child, should be considered serious. The possibility and the frequent occurrence of complications such as middle ear inflammation, inflammation in one of the accessory sinuses of the nose, broncho pneumonia or lobar pneumonia must always be a subject for consideration and prevention if possible.

The appended communication from the secretary of the board of public works, printed by request, is a discussion of matters relating to the sewerage bond-sale problem that should not, in any sense whatever, be understood by the public as reflecting the views of the Daily News. With the editorial opinions of contemporary publications the News has nothing to do; and it is the policy of this paper, at this time, to refrain from commenting, adversely or otherwise, on such opinions.

"Editor News:—Thursday's issue of the Halifax Journal has an editorial on our sewer bond issue in which it claims the board of public works as its authority for stating that Mayor Titus was principally to blame for the board's failure to dispose of the bonds. That statement is emphatically in error, as reference to the board's public statement of last week will show. The board's embarrassment in its efforts to sell the bonds was distinctly pointed out in that communication as being the extreme length of the bond with no provision for serial payments in the interim, with no announced policy regarding a sinking fund to meet the far-off payment of the bond, with an unattractive interest rate consequent upon the changed financial conditions of the country and the very pronounced timidity of capital against seeking far off future investments in either summer or winter resort towns.

These were the reasons emphasized as our trouble and not the mayor, who has cordially co-operated with the board in at least two instances, viz.: The sale to Sidney Spitzer & Co. at 96 and J. R. Sutherland & Co. at 95½. His only opposition that we have knowledge of is the sale to Bryan & Co. at 95. If accrued interest to be paid the city be taken into consideration there is but seven cents on every hundred dollars' difference between the two last propositions, certainly not enough to warrant deferring the whole sewer project with the chances of having to rip up permanently improved streets at a cost of many hundreds if not some thousands of dollars to the city, beside further complicating the city in its outstanding contracts of fully fifty thousand dollars on material and machinery. Is it worth while to haggle over a penny while facing a dollar's loss? Again, how few, if any of our people stop to think that a five per cent. bond sold at 95 makes our interest rate only 5½ on every bona-fide dollar we get, and yet probably this same citizen ignorantly envies the apparent good fortune of New Smyrna and a dozen other like towns in Florida which have recently negotiated 6 per cent. bonds at par or a trifle less for purposes of city improvement.

We are actually making our loan at three-quarters of one per cent. less than they are. E. M. CONDIT.

Useful Cement.

To make cement for stopping kals and holes in iron pipe, etc., about two pounds of iron shavings or borings from a foundry; add one ounce of powdered sal ammoniac and one ounce of sulphur. Mix with water to a paste and use at once, as it hardens very fast. This will resist water and will be found useful for many purposes. Steel and shavings may be secured from paint or drug store.
